Negotiate

group and company collective agreements

Unions negotiate with management about decisions they propose. This is the case for topics not covered in the sector agreement, such as salaries, skill management, training, mobility and gender equality.

Influence

in the representative bodies

Both employees and management can suggest topics for discussion, such as strategy, company reorganisation, investments and company acquisition. Discussions are held at several levels:

- the overall group: SEI, SEF and all French subsidiaries: group committee
- all SEI and SEF units, known as "social and economic" units (UES): central social and economic committee (CSE)
- each site or group of sites: social and economic committee (CSE)
- each site: occupational health, safety and conditions committee (CSSCT).

Organise

social events and cultural activities independently of management (former works council responsibilities)

- Decisions are voted by the majority.
- The budget is allocated by management and is a % of the total payroll.
- Events and activities are organised by various committees focused on a theme such as recreational activities, culture or holidays. Members and employees are welcome to join the committees.

Participate

in joint supervisory committees (CPS)

Employees nominated by the unions and members of management supervise subjects managed by external bodies:

- investment of savings and retirement funds,
- private complementary health insurance and life and disability insurance.

Organizing my working life

Annual Performance Review (EAP)

The new appraisal process

- Employee performance is now assessed on 3 criteria with a scale of 3 levels.

The result determines the calculation of the performance bonus for eligible employees (% of your STIP).

Individual achievements (maximum 4 or 5 objectives)

- These objectives must be personal, quantifiable and achievable within the set time frame. They can be changed. In that case, don't forget to update TalentLink. For example, if a project is cancelled, the objective has to be deleted.

Contribution to the overall success

- Your colleagues and line managers assess how you support your colleagues' ideas and team work which contributes to Schneider Electric's overall success.
- Discuss this with your manager to be sure you understand and express this in a clear and concrete objective.

Conduct

- The values for conduct are represented by the word IMPACT: Inclusion, Mastery, Purpose, Action, Curiosity and Teamwork.

Our recommendations

- Check with your manager regularly. You don't have to wait for your annual performance review.
For example: Have a face-to-face with your manager halfway through the year to discuss your progress towards your objectives and revise them if necessary.
- Preparing for you interview (TalentLink tool). Take the time to present concrete examples of your accomplishments. Seek advice from the people you have worked with.
- Argue your case. Objectify your results qualitatively and quantitatively, including those related to behaviour. If an objective is not achieved, recall the unfavourable context, emphasize the time spent and your efforts, or even negotiate the removal of this objective. Be precise and explain yourself. This will be taken into account if there is a problem in the future.
- Negotiate your salary and (if applicable) your STIP. Argue on the basis of your results and a potential wage gap.
- This is also the time to review your job description and your job group/grade.
- Don't leave your EAP without understanding the appraisal. In the event of disagreement, use your right to reply in writing afterwards in the TalentLink form.

Keep a PDF version of all your interviews.

3 criteria	3-level scale
	Work in progress	Stable	Excellent
Individual achievements Team	Developing the skills and behaviors required to bring to the team, business and customers.	Stable contribution to the team, business or customers: some objectives are partially met and others are exceeded.	Excellent impact on the success of the team, the business and customers. Results reflect the ambitious objectives and almost always exceed expectations.
Contribution to overall success Sharing, taking initiatives, giving credit, etc.	Needs additional support to meet job requirements	Supports and builds on the ideas of colleagues for achievement as a team	Constantly helps others generate and realise new ideas with exponential positive impact for the team, business or customers.
Conduct reflects the company's values	Coaching and feedback via regular constructive discussion to improve reflection of Schneider Electric's values	• Reflects the Schneider Electric's values. • Individual responsibility, team motivation • Uses judgement to overcome obstacles	• Promotes company values • Assumes responsibilities and all the details • Anticipates future challenges

Monitoring and recording working hours

Terms and conditions

- Several working time tracking systems coexist depending on the site and local agreements.
- Working conditions are determined based on the type of job and the autonomy required to perform the job, as well as the needs of the various entities within the group.
- Time tracking using a badge: unchanged.
- Time tracking without a badge: via PayLink. Time tracking is carried out by automatically incrementing the days worked with the reference schedule (generally 7 hours and 36 minutes).

- Absences entered in PayLink are deducted from the days worked. A cumulative total is calculated monthly and annually.
- Work-life balance (right to disconnect) must be maintained: managers are required to ensure that the workload is compatible with effective rest periods..

In the event of excessive workload, report this in writing to your manager.

Type of employment	According to rules and agreements in force at the establishment.
	Working hours	Rest periods	Monitoring of working hours	Overtime
A1 to E10 Non-executive employment with collective working hours	Recorded in hours according to the collective working hours schedule	Work: 10 hours max. Rest periods: 11 hours min.	Daily time tracking or declarative in PayLink	Overtime payment
F11 Executive job with fixed hours	Recorded in hours (weekly, monthly or annually).	Work: 10 hours maxi. Rest periods: 11 hours min.	No 'control' of working time (declarative in PayLink)	Overtime payment

H16 à I18 Executive position without hourly reference	No restrictions on working hours Not eligible for RTTs except RTT bridges	-	No monitoring of working hours	Not eligible

Part-time work

- Part-time work (or reduced fixed days for managers on a fixed days) is available to all employees except work-study students and interns.
- Part-time working hours range from 70% to 90% of full-time hours. They may be lower at the employee's request if justified by personal circumstances.

Switching to part-time work

- Requests to switch to part-time work must be made with 3 months' notice.
- The manager must respond within one month of receiving the request, and any refusal must be notified in writing.

The amendment to the employment contract is signed for 12 months and is tacitly renewable every 24 months.

Returning to full-time work

- This is done at the employee's request at least 2 months before the end of the period.
- Certain circumstances may modify these rules (illness, specific family situations, etc.).
- The arrangement may be called into question in certain cases where it is incompatible with the job (mobility, changes in scope, etc.).

Part-time employees benefit from the same provisions in terms of remuneration, mobility, career development and training as those granted to full-time employees..

For information, this has an impact on basic and supplementary pension contributions.

Business travels

Definition

- Business travel is where an employee temporarily performs their professional duties outside their usual place of work in connection with their job.

Method of calculating compensation

- Compensation for hours lost due to travel can only be paid in time.
- These rules apply to employees, both managerial and non-managerial, on fixed hourly or fixed days, including work-study students, but not to interns, itinerant technical employees, regular on-site workers, or employees without fixed working hours (VP and above).

Type of employee package		Hourly package	Daily package
Method of calculating recoverable time	For travel during the week For travel time exceeding 13 hours , on-site accommodation is mandatory.	• Employees must declare their usual working hours, including their commute between home and their usual place of work and their meal break. • They must then calculate: their total travel time minus 1 hour allowance, minus their usual working time: - if the result is less than one hour: no time off in lieu, - above this, they may take 75% of the calculated time off in lieu, up to a maximum of 3 hours, i.e. 2 hours 15 minutes off in lieu per day. See examples below	• No compensation
	For travel on a day that is not normally a working day (except for personal reasons)	• Departure : : - before 2 p.m.: 1 day - after 2 p.m.: 1/2 day • Return : - before 12 noon: 1/2 day - after 12 noon: 1 day If the journey time is > 6 hours = 1 day
Terms and conditions and monitoring of time off in lieu		• Time off in lieu in hours, half days or full days	• Time off in lieu in half days or full days
		• Time off in lieu to be taken no later than 3 months after the journey • Monitoring using a dedicated tool (Paylink)

Examples:

- If an employee whose working day usually consists of: 2 x 30 minutes' travel + 7½ hours' work + 1 hour's meal break, i.e. 9½ hours, goes on a business trip involving: 2 x 2 hours' travel + 8 hours' work + 1 hour's meal break, i.e. 13 hours, they will be entitled to 75% of 2 hours 30 minutes (3 hours 30 minutes difference – 1 hour allowance), i.e. approximately 1 hour 50 minutes.
- If an employee leaves on a Sunday afternoon to be at their business trip destination on Monday morning, they are entitled to ½ day's leave, to be taken within 3 months of their trip.

Organizing my working life

Professional training

Professional training helps employees take control of their career:

- either by progressing within the company,
- or by realising personal plan outside work or planning a career change.

Discuss your plan

With your manager or HRBP during your professional interview

- 4 themes are discussed during your professional interview: a review of your performance and your situation, your skills, your plan and support that could be provided for your project within the company.
- A professional interview must be conducted every 2 years. It is also compulsory when returning from: maternity or parental leave, sick leave over 6 months, a long part-time period, a professional assignment, change in the organisation that impacts the employee and secondment.

With a career adviser

- The procedure is free and confidential.
- The professional interview is not a skills assessment. The aim is to analyse the employee's individual situation, guide them, and provide them with support for their project.
- Make an appointment: <https://mon-cep.org#trouver>

Plan your training programme (with or without Schneider Electric)

Job training for Schneider Electric employees working in France

- Consult all the training available to Schneider Electric employees on My LearningLink.
- The training managers based in France select the programmes and prepare a catalogue for download.

Simply enter FRA* in the browser of My LearningLink to find most of the specific courses for France (excluding Health and Production).

To find training by function, BU and country, use the menu ☰ at the top right.

- Some employees have access to the Coursera platform via My LearningLink. Coursera offers internationally recognised online training.

Choose your training

Training financed by my CPF personal training account (Compte Personnel de Formation)

A wide range of training is available. You can train:

- with Schneider Electric's approval: it will then be co-financed by the company and the employee's CPF training account and can be carried out during working hours.
- independently: the employee uses their CPF training account to finance their training. In this case, the training is followed outside working hours or during unpaid working hours.

Since 2 May 2024, employees who use their CPF independently are requested to pay €100.

- Your CPF training account is credited with:
 - €500 per year with a limit of €5,000
 - €800 per year for CAP/BEP employees and for Disabled Worker (RQTH) with a limit of €8,000

Certification and diploma courses

Only courses that contribute to the employee's career or for retraining within the company are eligible.

- There are several options:
 - going back to school
 - promotion via a work-study course (Pro-A)
 - validation of prior learning and experience (VAE)
- In these cases, training is partially or entirely funded by Schneider Electric. Get in touch with your manager or HRBP.

Exception for employees who moved from non-executive to executive status.

- The "engineering up" process has been cancelled but Schneider Electric is committed to training employees to help them keep their jobs and to consolidate their professional development.
- Employees with sufficient motivation and the ability to invest long term may benefit from certification and diploma courses.

Dealing with the unexpected

Incapacity for work and invalidity

Incapacity for work

Definition

- Physical incapacity is observed by a doctor who prepares a sick leave certificate.
- In the event of sick leave: inform your manager and your payroll officer if you are on sick leave within the first 2 days. Send your medical certificate via support@schneider (Telephone: 01 70 48 88 88), in the section: "Demande et dépôt d'attestation > autre" or by post to your payroll officer.
- Managers are not authorised to contact employees on sick leave regarding work issues.
- Sick leave cannot exceed 3 years. After 3 years: either the employee is reinstated, or their incapacity is changed to invalidity (subject to confirmation by the social security system), or the employee is eligible for retirement.

Return to work

- To prevent withdrawal from professional life, the HRBP must contact the employee (after at least 30 days of leave) to help them prepare their return to work.
- The occupational doctor can also contact the employee.

Invalidity

Definition

- The employee is considered unfit when they have a disability that prevents them working or earning by at least two thirds (Art. L341-1 of the Social Security code).
- There are 3 categories of invalidity:
 - Category 1: the employee is capable of paid employment,
 - Category 2: the employee is theoretically incapable of paid employment,
 - Category 3: the employee is incapable of returning to any type of work and their conditions requires help from a third person.
- Disability pension is paid for as long as the disability is recognised. It ceases at age 62 (retirement age) unless the disabled person continues to work.

The allowance is paid by the social security system

- The social security system pays daily allowances (IJ).
- There is no waiting period for Schneider Electric employees with over 1 year of seniority.
- The basic monthly salary is calculated as follows:
 - the average of 3 gross monthly salaries preceding leave
 - or 12 months for seasonal or discontinuous activity, limited to 1.8 x the minimum wage.

Advise your HRBP of changes in your situation to ensure your file is accurate.

Duration of cover

Seniority	Duration of salary support and % of coverage
	Non Executive		Executive
Period	1 st	2 nd	1 st	2 nd	3 rd
Employer	100 %	-	100 %	50 %	-
SS		100 %			100 %
Klésia	-		-	50 %
1-5 years	90 days	until 360 IJ per period of 3 years	90 days	90 days	until 360 IJ per period of 3 years
5-10 years	120 days		120 days	120 days
10-15 years	150 days		150 days	150 days
> 15 years	180 days		180 days	180 days

Invalidity allowance

- The social security system pays an invalidity allowance which is calculated depending on the invalidity category.
 - Category 1: 30 % of average basic salary
 - Category 2: 50 % of average basic salary
 - Category 3: 50 % of average basic salary, with an additional third-person allowance (approx. €1,288 per month)
- The basic salary is calculated on the average of the 10 best years of activity (capped at 1 PASS i.e. approx. €47,100).
- While the employee's salary (total or partial) is maintained by the employer, the social security allowances are paid by Schneider Electric, shown on the payslip (subrogation).
- When the employer has finished paying, the social security system pays the allowances directly into the employee's bank account. Klesia pays the difference to reach the full net salary.

Dealing with the unexpected

Disability support

The Recognition as a Disabled Worker (RQTH)

- Measures exist in the group to help persons with disabilities to practice their profession and to evolve in their careers.
- There is no disability, but there are a variety of situations of disability.
- 80 % of disabilities are invisible and 1 in 3 employees has a disability.
- Disability occurs whenever a health problem or accident has an impact on working life.
- A disability situation can be one-time, long-term and/or progressive.
- The Recognition as a Disabled Worker (RQTH) is a confidential and personal process.
- RQTH is assigned either temporarily (1 to 10 years) or without a time limit.

This recognition in no way prevents your professional development, it is a commitment of Schneider Electric.

The 6 categories of disability

- Motor disability: reduction/loss of motor skills, musculoskeletal disorders (TMS), osteoarthritis, etc.
- Visual impairment
- Hearing impairment
- Mental disability
- Psychological disability : personality dysfunction, depression
- Disabling diseases: respiratory, digestive diseases, cancer, etc.

Are you concerned?

- If you are concerned, it is in your best interest to initiate a recognition procedure and to inform the service of prevention and/ or occupational health department.
- You do not have to tell your employer about your RQTH, nor do you have to tell your management and your colleagues, unless you want to communicate about your disability so that it can be better considered. Talking about is a way of saying that you can work but you cannot, or can no longer do certain things, or that you need more time, or technical aids or training because of your disability.. RQTH can enable you to adapt your job or to find a new one.

The request is to be made to the MDPH
(Departmental House for People with Disabilities) of your department

Does the RQTH give me any rights?

At Schneider, recognition of your disability status gives you rights:

- 2 half-days of paid leave
- support from a social worker if necessary
- reimbursement of any travel expenses
- medical follow-up and appropriate support
- workstation adaptation with the help of ergonomists (office, chair, automated equipment etc.)
- derogatory teleworking, flexible working hours, therapeutic part-time work, etc.
- a bonus of €300 per year in your personal training account (CPF) up to an annual maximum of €800 and a total maximum of €8,000.

Protection of employees

Victims of violence

Schneider is committed to take action

- For ensuring his safety, any employees who is subjected to family or domestic violence can be moved to another Schneider Electric site (removal of the violence spouse).
- Make request to the occupational doctor at your site or HRBP.

INFO

Therapeutic Part-Time (TPT)

Return to part-time work for therapeutic reasons following illness or accident at work

- Return to part-time work for therapeutic reasons after:
 - illness,
 - a workplace accident
 - occupational disease.
- Return to work is prescribed by the referring doctor who determines the best way to return to work.
- Therapeutic Part-Time setting up does not necessarily follow a period off work.

The duration of the Therapeutic Part-Time is a maximum of 1 year.

- When the referring doctor has provided the prescription:
 - the employer prepares a certificate indicating their agreement in principle that the employee returns to work, the nature of the job, and the salary,
 - The occupational doctor receives the employee for a consultation, prepares a health certificate or a certificate for follow-up according to the referring doctor's recommendation.
- The CPAM healthcare system informs the employee of their decision, advised by the medical committee, to accept or refuse to pay daily allowances (IJ) by registered letter.

Consequences for employees

- No impact on paid leave.
- Impact on supplementary pension contributions.
- JRT (reduced working time) proportional to attendance.
- Impact on profit-sharing and incentive schemes.
- No impact on STIP.

Supplementary daily allowances are paid by the CPAM for part-time salaries and the difference is paid by the CPAM and supplemented by Schneider Electric.

The calculation of daily allowances paid for a part-time return to work for therapeutic reasons are the same for sick leave.

Note: holiday leave entitlement is entered manually for these employees and must be approved by the manager or HRBP.

Network Le RePair

Community of Schneider Electric employees affected by a chronic illness as patients, ex-patients or caregivers

- Through listening and discussion, the Schneider Electric Le RePair community supports any employee who expresses the need, whether they are a patient, caregiver, manager or colleague, to co-construct a path to recovery in employment and support the impacted team.
- This peer network, unrelated to the medical circuit, calls on volunteer employees who have experienced the illness and can listen and help with returning to and staying in employment.

- Compensation paid in the form of a lump sum upon retirement, or taken in the form of a dispensation from work prior to retirement.
- Amount or duration depending on years of service in the group, as long as you are still an employee at Schneider Electric just before retiring.
- The ICDR gives the right to the payment of profitsharing and participation Requesting a pension settlement from HRBP by indicating the choice of ICDR and specifying the dates, at least 2 months before the start of the ICDR.

The ICDR can be taken in time after reaching the date of full-rate retirement date, in order to benefit from a retirement with surcote.

Contract "Article 39"

 - have been a potential beneficiary of the former End-of-Career Leave (CFC)
 - at December 31, 2013
 - born between 1953 and 1978
 - be an employee of Schneider at the time of retirement.
- Pension calculated on the basis of the difference in entitlements to the former CFC (frozen on 31/12/2013) and to the ICDR (on the date of retirement), after application of a reduction of 3 % per year between the year of birth and 1953 (see table CFC Entitlements, opposite).

If the assessed annuity is $\leq$ €110/month, the capital should be paid in 1 installment.

Remember to recover it quickly after your departure, because, in the event of the employee's death, the capital is lost.

If you leave Schneider before retirement (resignation, contractual termination, etc.), you will lose all capital linked to Article 39.

Preparing my departure

End of the employment contract

	Definition	Notice period
Contractual termination departure on the basis of mutual agreement between employee and employer	• It allows the employer and the employee on a open-ended contract (CDI) to come to a mutual agreement on the conditions for the termination of the employment contract between them. • It is possible under conditions and compensation. • A termination agreement must be drawn up. • It must be validated by the DREETS.	• No notice period but departure date according to negotiation.
Resignation	• Allows you to terminate your permanent contract (CDI) on your own initiative. • The departure date is linked to the notice period.. Abandoning one's post is no longer considered a resignation, so it is not covered by unemployment insurance and, above all, it is impossible to work in another company.	• The length of notice depends on the job group: 2 calendar weeks for A and B, 1 month for C, 2 months for D and E, 3 months for F to I. • Note: the employer can decide to exempt you from giving notice. • Taking paid holiday during the notice period pushes out the end date, unless they were asked after notification of resignation.
Dismissal for inadequacy/ professional incompetence	• The employer can invoke this reason to dismiss an employee who has not been able to carry out his task as stipulated in the employment contract (incompetence, professional unsuitability, errors, failures, disorganisation, insufficient or unusable work, lack of qualifications despite the employer's training efforts, etc.). • Minimum 8 months of uninterrupted seniority.	• The length of notice (1 to 3 months and up to 6 months for executives) depends on the job group, employee seniority and age. • Note: the employer can decide to exempt you from giving notice. • Taking paid holiday during the notice period pushes out the end date.
Dismissal for incapacity physical or mental	• The employer does not have the right to dismiss an employee who has an accident/illness and who can no longer fulfil their role without having first tried to modify/adapt their role according to the recommendations of the occupational physician. • In some cases, it may be important to start the disability recognition process (see the Klesia insurance policy)	• No notice period and no compensation in lieu of notice
Dismissal for misconduct / gross misconduct	• The employee's departure is immediate, without the possibility of executing the notice period or paying compensation (unjustified absences or abandonment of post, indiscipline, refusal to execute a task provided for in the contract, harassment, violence, insults, theft in the company, drunkenness in the workplace, etc.). • If the acts committed reflect a desire to harm the company and result in damage, the company may also claim damages from the dismissed employee.	• No possibility of working the notice period. • Not paid for it.
End of contract to take retirement	• An employee can decide to retire once he or she has reached the legal age. This voluntary departure is equivalent to a breach of the employment contract • on the employee's initiative, but does not constitute • a resignation or a conventional termination of contract.	• Contact HRBP at least 6 months beforehand to finalise your departure and at least 2 months before taking an ICDR in time. • Update your retirement file 12 months before.

Redundancy Legal Redundancy Payment (ILL) Conventional Redundancy Payment (ICL)	Tax and social security regime of the indemnity 2025 PASS value: €47,100	Return for Employment Allowance ARE = former allowance for unemployment

• No ILL (no severance pay) • Payment of untaken holiday days (CPs).	• Compensation of notice period, payment of CPs, non-competition indemnity are subject to income tax.	• Except in special cases, resignation does not entitle you to receive ARE • No portability from the MESE
• The employee receives ILL or ICL • Payment of untaken CPs.	• Tax-exempt up to the limit of the legal or contractual indemnity or 2 years' salary (or 50 % of the total indemnity) up to 6 PASS and exempt from social security contributions up to 2 PASS	• The employee is entitled to the ARE. • Waiting period depending on the amount of the supralegal severance pay received and the paid holidays. • MESE portability ⁽¹⁾
• The employee receives ILL or ICL. • Special compensation if the physical unfitness is of professional origin (accident at work/occupational disease). • The amount of the special compensation is at least equal to double the legal redundancy compensation without any seniority condition.	• Exempt from income tax if the incapacity is of professional origin.	• The employee is entitled to the ARE. • MESE portability ⁽¹⁾
• No severance pay. • Payment of untaken CPs.	• The payment of CPs is subject to income tax.	• The employee is entitled to the ARE. • MESE portability ⁽¹⁾ except if the dismissal is due to a gross misconduct
• Retirement indemnities, provided that the pension is liquidated: ICDR (Capital or Annuity) and for some Article 39 (see page 28)	• Subjected to income tax.	• The employee is entitled to the ARE.
